Wiltshire Life Sep-21 on sale 12/08/21	£4.99 	In this issue we share details of the return of two popular county events. The Marlborough LitFest is once again welcoming authors to the town with live and online events and we discover more about creative events on the Peacock Arts Trail. Mary-Vere Parr meets world renowned fashion designer Georgina von Etzdorf, as she opens her new business in Wilton. We visit Kensons Farm, where, for the last two decades they have been growing, and supplying organic vegetables, flowers, and more recently Shitake mushrooms to the local community, and beyond. We head back to the 1400s and reveal how the actions of two noblemen defined their fate. Michael Marshman shares how from the wheel to classic car, and bicycle design, the county has been at the forefront of transport innovation. Wessex Auctions explain the growing interest in collecting items relating to the military. Morag Walker has the latest update of life on her allotment, and we have full details of how to send in nominations for this year's Wiltshire Life awards.
